CASE NOTES

Parents of mentally retarded children found to have no statutory right to consent to sterilization of child. State statute providing only for sterilization of inmates of certain state institutions held under-inclusive and violative of the Equal Protection Clause of the fourteenth amendment. Ruby v. Massey, 452 F. Supp. 361 (D. Conn. 1978) ..... Vol. 17 (1978-79) Page 834

Illinois Abortion Act of 1975 was declared unconstitutional in part. Wynn v. Scott, 449 F. Supp. 1302 (N.D. Ill. 1978) ..... Vol. 17 (1978-79) Page 797

Judge who granted petition to sterilize a "somewhat retarded" minor held immune from liability because he had not acted in "clear absence of all jurisdiction," despite the lack of a specific statute granting jurisdiction and despite procedural errors. Stump v. Sparkman, 435 U.S. 349 (1978). ..... Vol. 17 (1978-79) Page 611

Statute authorizing a trial court, in its discretion and under the proper circumstances, to order child support, including college expenses, to continue beyond a child's majority held constitutional. Childers v. Childers, 89 Wash. 2d 592, 575 P.2d 201 (1978) ... Vol. 17 (1978-79) Page 604

Care and training of a severely or profoundly retarded child at a state school for the mentally retarded is not "education" in the sense used by the New Jersey Constitution. To discriminate between those mentally retarded children who received day care services and those who received residential services violates the Equal Protection Clause of the fourteenth amendment to the United States Constitution. Guempel v. State, 159 N.J. Super. 166, 387 A.2d 399 (Law Div. 1978) ..... Vol. 17 (1978-79) Page 598

A minor's constitutional right to choose to surrender her child does not abdicate the state's parens patriae responsibility to safeguard the minor and insure that her surrender was informed and voluntary. Janet G. v. New York Foundling Hospital, 94 Misc. 2d 133, 403 N.Y.S.2d 646 (Fam. Ct. 1978) ..... Vol. 17 (1978-79) Page 591

Municipal corporation's policy of not employing spouses of current employees held not to violate Equal Protection Clause even as applied to cohabiting couple. Espionoza v. Thoma, 580 F.2d 346 (8th Cir. 1978) ..... Vol. 17 (1978-79) Page 382

Alabama constitutional and statutory provisions which operated to disenfranchise men upon conviction for "assault and battery on the wife" held unconstitutional as a denial of equal protection. Hobson v. Pow, 434 F. Supp. 357 (N.D. Ala. 1977) ..... Vol. 17 (1978-79) Page 379

Forbidding ownership of a condominium apartment by a parent with whom a child under twelve resides violates the parent's fundamental right of privacy. Brothers are members of the same "family" and use of the apartment they jointly own on an alternating basis does not violate a covenant restricting occupancy to "single family use." Franklin v. White Egret Condominium, Inc., 358 So. 2d 1084 (Fla. Dist. Ct. App. 1978) ..... Vol. 17 (1978-79) Page 167

Privilege against self-incrimination properly sought by mother of illegitimate child in statutory paternity proceeding. Grant v. State, 83 Wis. 2d 77, 264 N.W.2d 587 (1978) ..... Vol. 17 (1978-79) Page 162

Statute requiring physicians who perform abortions to inform their patients of statutory provisions which terminate their parental rights should a live birth result from an attempted abortion, held constitutional. *Frieman v. PUBLIC ASSISTANCE

CASE NOTE

A state cannot "deem" a portion of a non-institutionalized spouse's income available to meet the financial burden of an institutionalized spouse's medical care in lieu of a factual determination of the amount of income reasonably available. Herweg v. Ray, 443 F. Supp. 1315 (S.D. Iowa 1978) ..... Vol. 17 (1978-79) Page 194

SCHOOLS

CASE NOTE

Care and training of a severely or profoundly retarded child at a state school for the mentally retarded is not "education" in the sense used by the New Jersey Constitution. To discriminate between those mentally retarded children who receive day care services and those who receive residential services violates the Equal Protection Clause of the fourteenth amendment to the United States Constitution. Guempel v. State, 159 N.J. Super. 166, 387 A.2d 399 (Law Div. 1978) ..... Vol. 17 (1978-79) Page 598

SEX DISCRIMINATION

CASE NOTES

Municipal corporation's policy of not employing spouses of current employees held not to violate Equal Protection Clause even as applied to cohabiting couple. Espionoza v. Thoma, 580 F.2d 346 (8th Cir. 1978) ..... Vol. 17 (1978-79) Page 379

Alabama constitutional and statutory provisions which operated to disenfranchise men upon conviction for "assault and battery on the wife" held unconstitutional as a denial of equal protection. Hobson v. Pow, 434 F. Supp. 357 (N.D. Ala. 1977) ..... Vol. 17 (1978-79) Page 379

CASE NOTES

Parents of mentally retarded children found to have no statutory right to consent to sterilization of child. State statute providing only for sterilization of inmates of certain state institutions held under-inclusive and violative of the Equal Protection Clause of the fourteenth amendment. Ruby v. Massey, 452 F. Supp. 361 (D. Conn. 1978) ..... Vol. 17 (1978-79) Page 834

Judge who granted petition to sterilize a "somewhat retarded" minor held immune from liability because he had not acted in "clear absence of all jurisdiction," despite the lack of a specific statute granting jurisdiction and despite procedural errors. Stump v. Sparkman, 435 U.S. 349 (1978). Vol. 17 (1978-79) Page 611

One standing in loco parentis to a minor may assert the doctrine of parental immunity as a defense to a tort claim. Presence of liability insurance does not operate as a waiver of parental immunity, nor create a cause of action which otherwise would not exist. Mathis v. Ammons, 453 F. Supp. 1033 (E.D. Tenn. 1978) ..... Vol. 17 (1978-79) Page 820

The tort action for criminal conversation is judicially abolished in Iowa with retroactive application effective as to conduct occurring after January 1, 1978. The tort is substantively retained through an action for alienation of affections. Bearbower v. Merry, 266 N.W.2d 128 (Iowa 1978) ... Vol. 17 (1978-79) Page 815

A wife can bring an action for damages against her husband when the alleged facts amount to an outrageous, intentional tort. Lusby v. Lusby, 283 Md. 334, 390 A.2d 77 (1978) .... Vol. 17 (1978-79) Page 810

Wife had no common law right to damages for loss of consortium at the time of her husband's personal injury and a subsequent statutory grant of such a right was not retrospective in application. Albertson v. Travis, 2 Kan. App. 2d 153, 576 P.2d 1090 (1978) ..... Vol. 17 (1978-79) Page 393

Cause of action on behalf of parents for medical expenses and loss of wife's services and on behalf of infant for "wrongful life" permitted against defendant obstetricians. Park v. Chessin, 60 App. Div. 2d 80, 400 N.Y.S.2d 110 (1977) ..... Vol. 17 (1978-79) Page 199

VISITATION

CASE NOTES

Stepfather is entitled to determinative hearing on whether he stood in loco parentis to stepchild and, if so, whether it is in child's best interest to grant stepparent visitation rights and whether his rights are predicated on his agreement to pay adequate child support. Gribble v. Gribble, ___ Utah 2d ___, 583 P.2d 64 (1978) ..... Vol. 17 (1978-79) Page 830

Circuit courts have jurisdiction to award or deny visitation rights to father of illegitimate children. J.M.S. v. H.A., ___ W. Va. ___, 242 S.E.2d 696 (1978) ..... Vol. 17 (1978-79) Page 174
